

Development Research Day

Development and Governance

18 September 2006

Location:
Department of Political Science,
Paradisgatan 5, Eden

The guest lectures and the debate will take place in E116 (Edens hörsal) while the afternoon sessions will take place in E131, E233 and E234.

For a detailed programme
please go to www.ace.lu.se

- 09.15
Professor Christer Jönsson (Lund University)
Introduction
- 09.30
Professor Margaret Keck (Johns Hopkins University)
"State Disengagement and the Diffusion of Participatory Governance: questions arising from Brazil's Water Management reform."
- 10.15
Coffee Break (posters, book exhibition)
- 10.30
Professor Nicolas van de Walle (Cornell University)
"Governance, Foreign Aid and Growth in the Low-Income Countries"
- 11.15
Professor Mark Thompson, (University of Erlangen-Nuremberg)
"Reform after Reformasi: Middle Class Movements for Good Governance after Democratic Revolutions
in Southeast Asia"
- 12.00
Lunch
- 13.15
Parallel sessions with project presentations
MFS-students and researchers (for a detailed programme please see www.ace.lu.se)
- 15.00
Coffee Break (posters, book exhibition)
- 15.30
The Hydén Prize for best thesis on democratisation and development.

Panel debate: Professor Axel Hadenius (Chair)
Professor Jan Aart Scholte (Introduction)
Professor Margaret Keck, Professor Mark Thompson,
Professor Nicolas van de Walle, Professor Göran Hydén
- 17.00
End