

Development Research Day

– Development, Peace and Statebuilding

21 September 2011

Welcome to an exciting day on development research, open to everyone!

9.00 Welcome

Karin Aggestam & Kristina Jönsson, Lund University

9.15 International Statebuilding: The Rise of Post-Liberal Governance

David Chandler, professor at University of Westminster

10.00 Coffee

10.30 All Turned Around: Development, "War" and State Crisis in Zimbabwe.

Christine Sylvester, professor at University of Connecticut and guest professor at Lund University

11.15 The Grounding of Post-Conflict Reconstruction: The Challenge of Localizing Peace Agreements

Joakim Öjendahl, professor at Göteborg University

12.00 Hydén Award Ceremony

13.15 Parallel sessions and presentation of research projects by Lund University students and researchers

15.00 Coffee

15.30 Roundtable on the nexus between development, peace and statebuilding

Location: Department of Political Science, Paradisgatan 5, Eden. Guest lectures and the roundtable debate will take place in Ed116 (Edens hörsal). The parallel sessions in the afternoon will take place in Ed129, Ed131 and Ed233.

Organised by Peace and Conflict Research & the Department of Political Science. For more information, please visit www.freds.lu.se

