

Development Research Day 2015

From Millennium Development Goals to Sustainable Development Goals

PARALLEL SESSION SCHEDULE (10.15-12.00)

Session A: Poster session on Global health and sustainability

Room 312 Student lounge 3rd floor

Students from LUMES third semester present seven posters within the themes:

- The Sanitation Crisis
- Addressing the Nutritional Transition
- E-Waste
- Climate Change and Health

Session B: Realising SDGs

Room 315 Carson 3rd floor

Magdalena Bexell Political science	Legitimacy challenges for the Sustainable Development Goals
Sara Gabriellsson LUCSUS	Scaling up sanitation to reach the SDG's on WASH - Lessons from Tanzania and Kenya
Jens Andersson Economic History	Fiscal capacity and state formation in francophone West Africa 1850-2010
Peder Hjort Teknisk vattenresurslära	Re-aligning Development Aid for the Post-2015 Development Agenda

Session C: Land and Agriculture: Inclusion and Exclusion

Room 214 Vandana 2nd floor

Eduardo Rechden EMP/IIIEE	Current Status and Rural Area of Porto Alegre
Yengoh T. Genesis LUCSUS	The Impact of Large-scale Land Acquisitions on Local Communities in sub-Saharan Africa Summarizing results of two years of research in Sierra Leone
Agnes Andersson Djurfeldt Human Geography	Is 'pro-poor agricultural growth' inclusive? Gender perspectives on agriculture and rural livelihoods in sub-Saharan Africa
Emma Li Johansson Physical geography	Understanding large-scale land acquisitions in Tanzania through participatory art: Paintings and presentation

Session D: Power and Politics: from Household Level to State Level

Room 314 Ostrom 3rd floor

Stephen Woroniecki LUCSUS	The role of indicators in facilitating elite capture of development resources: lessons from a World Bank intervention in Zanzibar
Claudia Deijl Economic History	Does it matter who makes the money? An empirical analysis of women's bargaining power and child outcomes in Indonesia
Theo Aalders LUMES/LUCSUS	Fluid Risks – The politics of risk scaling at Urban Rivers in Nairobi
Laura Heiberg Pedersen Political Science	Flowing power in the community: How decisions are made and their consequences for water accessibility in Western Kenya

Session E: Agency, Social Innovation & Collective Action

Room 313 Wagner 3rd floor

Diana Gaftoneanu Human Ecology	Diffusion going glocal - An excursion into initiatives around diffusing social innovations towards the sustainable development of local communities worldwide
Jacco Visser Political Science	Towards a mobile indigeneity? The case of indigenous students from the Chittagong Hill Tracts in Dhaka, Bangladesh
Elina Andersson LUCSUS	From waste to value: action research on urine fertilizer in Uganda (Film and presentation)