2 scholarships for students for a stay in Neve Shalom/Wahat al-Salam

The Swedish Friends' of Neveh Shalom/Wahat al Salaam invites students to stay in the peace village Neve Shalom/Wahat al-Salam located in the vicinity of Jerusalem to study the village’s work and model for conflict management, especially their School for Peace. The scholarship is intended for students of Peace and Conflict Studies at all levels at Lund University. The two students who receive the grant get the opportunity to spend two weeks in the village and get in contact both with citizens of the village, teachers, facilitators, and students of the School for Peace.

The field trip to NSWAS can be used to collect empirical data for a project that the student will carry out, for an academic thesis or as an experience in itself. After finishing the trip the students are expected to use their research and observations to write an article for the Friends’ Organization, to be published in its newsletter, web page and maybe elsewhere, and also to make an oral presentation for the Swedish Friends' of Neveh Shalom/Wahat al Salaam in Stockholm.

The monetary contribution of the scholarship will cover a return ticket from Sweden to Tel Aviv, the accommodation in the volunteers’ house of the village and some living expenses during the stay. NSWAS will provide work space in the village for two weeks, and introduction to the work.

The visit to Neve Shalom/Wahat al-Salam should take place in the first half of June.

Content of application:

An application (maximum 2 pages) should be sent to Lisa Strömbom lisa.strombom@svet.lu.se and contain:

- Project plan (basic)
- Connection with other studies – if the results will be used for a thesis, project, etc.
